

Key Speaker Profile

Dr Simon Littlewood

BDS FDS(Orth)RCPS MOrthRCS MDSc FDSRCS

Consultant and Specialist in Orthodontics

Orthodontic Department
St Luke's Hospital
Little Horton Lane
Bradford
BD4 0NA

Tel: 01274 365646

- 2006 Fellowship in Dental Surgery ad eudnem (Royal College of Surgeons of England)
- 2000 Intercollegiate Specialty Fellowship in Orthodontics
- 1998 Membership in Orthodontics (Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh)
- 1998 Master of Dental Science (University of Leeds)
- 1995 Fellowship in Dental Surgery (Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow)
- 1991 Bachelor of Dental Surgery (University of Newcastle upon Tyne)

Current Activities

Dr Littlewood is a Consultant in the Orthodontic Department at St Luke's Hospital Bradford and Leeds Dental Institute. He is currently Training Programme Director of the University of Leeds Postgraduate programme, and one of the course directors of the UK's first Orthodontic Therapist Course.

Dr Littlewood is a member of:

British Orthodontic Society
British Dental Association
World Federation of Orthodontists

Dr. Simon Littlewood's research interests are randomised controlled clinical trials and systematic reviews. He also supervises postgraduate research MSc projects. He is the lead author on a Cochrane review into orthodontic retention and is on the editorial board of the Journal of Orthodontics.

Lectures currently available include:

- The Art of Camouflage in Hypodontia Cases
- Preparing for surgery and post-surgical orthodontics
- The role of the orthodontist in the treatment of obstructive sleep apnoea
- Early treatment of Class III malocclusions
- Retention & Relapse
- Hawley retainers, bonded retainers and adjunctive techniques
- Vacuum-formed retainers: making them work every time